Our Woodstock Residential Care Home residents rocked the house on Wednesday 11 May when we had fun celebrating the 1970s!

They started the morning off by watching the brilliant 'Bohemian Rhapsody' film with popcorn and a sing along, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed.

Then in the afternoon, they danced the day away with singer Bruce Winter who performed a selection of Queen's greatest hits and songs from the 70s.

Our staff and residents dressed up as Queen – complete with impressive moustaches!

What a fun day of music and laughter!
