

Posted on December 16, 2019

We were delighted to host St Peter's school choir last week here at Woodstock Residential Care Home.

We had the most amazing morning listening to the 60 children singing Christmas carols – such a lovely way to get in the mood for Christmas.

Many of the children wore Christmas jumpers, so they looked very festive.

A massive thank you to all the children and staff who come to our Home and sang the most beautiful songs.