

Posted on June 1, 2022

Our residents at Woodstock Residential Care Home loved holding our new baby born dolls on Tuesday 31 May.

Lifelike dolls can have great benefits for elderly residents; they can be so soothing and comforting for those with Dementia and can bring out a person's caring nature.

Joan said that she would like to be a mum again and Molly enjoyed giving her baby a lovely big cuddle.

So wonderful to see.

Enjoying a cuddle

