Our residents at Woodstock Residential Care Home had a great time dancing and singing the afternoon away on Friday 27 August at our very own Copacabana beach party.

The talented performer Jasmine sang songs from around the world to get us all in a summertime mood and we decorated our lounge with an Hawaiian backdrop, inflatable palm trees and pineapples.

Many of our residents at Woodstock love to dance and always keep Marina and Lauren from our Recreation and Well-Being Team on their toes!

Everyone enjoyed dressing up in grass skirts and coconut bras and showing off their surf boarding skills. What a super party!
