

Posted on January 7, 2019

With lovely memories of Christmas fresh in our minds, residents and staff here at Woodstock Residential Care Home have been working on some puzzles today, Monday 7 January.

Many of our residents enjoy doing puzzles and it provides meaningful mental stimulation too. Our lady Enid has almost completed this festive scene puzzle today.