

Posted on December 29, 2019

Residents at Woodstock Residential Care Home had a lovely surprise last week when Father Christmas and his special helpers came to visit. They brought lots of presents with them too!

Santa and this little elf gave out presents to all the residents, wishing them a merry Christmas and a happy new year.

