

Posted on October 8, 2020

This week our residents at Woodstock Residential Care Home had great fun creating a collective hand print painting on a big canvas, using water based paints.

We painted everyone's hands using different bright coloured paint. It was very messy but great fun and it looks fantastic on the wall of our new activity room.

We love our personalised piece of artwork and it now has pride of place! Well done everyone!