

Posted on May 20, 2019

On Tuesday 14 May residents at Woodstock Residential Care Home got their singing voices out as they grooved and sang along to hits from the 50s and 60s, with our karaoke box, which is always popular!

Our residents and staff love getting together and singing their favourite songs and this always gets everyone joining in!

