

Posted on April 3, 2019

We at Woodstock Residential Care Home had an amazing Mother's Day; residents and their loved ones enjoyed live music entertainment and a scrumptious tea party of sandwiches and sweet treats.

The residents loved singing along to the music and spending this special day with their families. And those with an extra sweet tooth took away red organza bag favours of old fashioned sweets, including classic love hearts.

