

Posted on December 22, 2020

A small group of residents here at Woodstock Residential Care Home had great fun painting paper plates to make Rudolph decorations yesterday.

We painted the plates brown and we drew around our hands to make the antlers, then hung them on the wall.

This is a lovely way to decorate the Home and make it feel festive!