

Posted on November 14, 2022

Our residents here at Woodstock Residential Care Home created two beautiful and memorable displays to commemorate Remembrance day.

Everyone got creative with making pretty poppy flowers; we used a template and rolled up tissues paper to create the flowers.

Each resident created their own poppy flower and wrote a small message on the back to say what remembrance day means to them.

Dining and lounge area poppy display

Entrance hall poppy display