

Posted on December 22, 2020

Residents here at Woodstock Residential Care Home had great fun playing 'pin the big red nose on Rudolph the reindeer' yesterday.

It was a little competition to see who could get the closest to his nose; there may have been a bit of cheeky peaking going on!

Our winner was Molly (pictured below) and she chose a glass of sherry as her prize.

Well done Molly!

Our resident Molly was the winner!