

Posted on November 24, 2022

This week, our residents at Woodstock Residential Care Home enjoyed a singalong with talented musician Christine playing her violin and accordion.

Our ladies and gents enjoyed joining in by clapping their hands and tapping their feet to the music.

We had song sheets with all the words to the songs and everyone said how much they enjoyed singing along to the accordion for a change.

Great fun!

Singing along with musician Christine