

Posted on December 21, 2020

Carol and Sandra at Woodstock Residential Care Home have work very hard this year to help make the Home look festive from the outside.

Our residents love sitting in the lounge and looking at the beautiful coloured light display in the back garden; what a lovely way to cheer everyone up when it gets dark!