

Posted on March 29, 2023

Our Woodstock Residential Care Home residents enjoyed an afternoon of colouring this week, whilst listening to some classic 60s tunes and sharing a cup of tea and chat.

Colouring pictures is such a great way to promote hand-eye coordination and some of our ladies and gents showed their artistic side, with some beautiful shading.

