

Posted on October 26, 2022

Our residents at Woodstock Residential Care Home enjoyed getting creative (and messy!) doing some pumpkin carving this week.

Our ladies and gents helped scoop out the insides and then draw a picture on the pumpkin ready for carving.

They were delighted to see the 'spooktacular' Halloween display of all our pumpkins at the end of the day; this activity went down a storm and everybody said how lovely it had been getting into the spirit of things.

